

Conservation Options Workshop for Landowners

Thursday, September 12, 2019 7-8:30 pm
Brown Memorial Library
West Main Street, Bradford

Join us for an overview of conservation options for landowners followed by a panel discussion comprised of four prominent individuals with knowledge and experience working with Ausbon Sargent. Panelists will address their choices and circumstances regarding land conservation. We'll conclude with questions and answers. This workshop is co-sponsored by the Ausbon Sargent Land Preservation Trust and its Outreach Committee and the Bradford Conservation Commission.

This workshop is FREE and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. If you are interested in attending, we request that you register with Ausbon Sargent by Monday, September 9th. Call Kristy Heath at (603) 526-6555 or email kheath@ausbonsargent.org.

In a nutshell:

Overview by Land Protection
Specialist
Andy Deegan

Panelist
Ann Eldridge
Member of the
Bradford Conservation
Commission Offers
a Town's Perspective

Panelist
Brooks McCandlish
Shares his Knowledge of Best Practices for Agriculture and Forestry Management
on His Bradford Land.

Panelists
Don and Sue Moss
Landowners Who Purchased a Conserved
Property that is Subject to the Agreement Drawn by the Prior Owner